WEEKLY ACTIVITIES AND STATUS REPORT FOR THE DD/ICS--30 January 1985

CIPC Organizational Activities

- The third draft of the Cruise Missile Report has been completed. We are presently in the process of reviewing it and should be able to provide you our reaction in a day or so.
- Drafting continues on the Combat Intelligence Analysis Report examining the issues surfaced by General Faurer.
- Bob, Ray, Jim, and George met with Charlie Allen on 29 January and reviewed the terrorism and narcotics activities under way within the Intelligence Community.
- Personnel:
 - Carol reports to her new assignment on 31 January.
 - Other items to be discussed.

Narcotics Activities:

- George attended the NIO/Narcotics Monthly Warning and Forecast meeting on 24 January.

- As reported earlier, we will initiate development of the final Narcotics Report for the DCI in mid-February.

Terrorism Activities:

- We have begun reformatting the Counterterrorism Working Group's report to bring it more in line with established CIPC format. No substantive changes are being made. As you know, our working group chairman, Bob has rather firm ideas about how the study should be organized and presented.
